

Flannery Jury Still Out.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 23.—The jury in the case of James J. Flannery, charged for killing his wife, was still outlasted this morning after two

PRETTY ALB-WHITE 1 ROCK
The distinctive yoke of this frock that extends to the sleeves and is an interesting feature. Blouse and under part of sleeves are cut in one piece and joined to the yoke with french lace. The skirt has gathered side panels that point. White crepe de chine is the material.

[illegible]

Stabler-Fegley.
A wedding of interest here is that of Miss Mattie R Stabler, daughter of Mrs Anna R and the late C Frank Stabler, of Allentown Pa and Solon John Fegley, son of Mr and Mrs John D Fegley of Merztown, which took place in the Salem Baptist Church. The bride was accompanied by the immediate families and a few intimate friends. Rev J M G Darius the pastor officiated and owing to the recent death of the bride's father the ceremony was very quiet. There were no attendants. The bride attended the Allentown High School. Mr Fegley was a student in the Coatesville High School during the years 1914 and 1915 and has a number of friends here. He was graduated from the Keokuk State Normal School and has taken special work at the Cold Harbor Bacteriology and Biology Laboratories. Six years ago he was elected teacher of biology in the Allentown High School, and has since that time been in the occupation of the months he served in the army during the World War. He attained the rank of second lieutenant in the Sanitary Corps and was stationed at Fort Bliss, Tex. Following a wedding breakfast served at the Hotel Allen Mr and Mrs Fegley left on a wedding trip to the New England States. On their return they will be with the bride's mother at 34 North Thirteenth street Allentown.

King's Heralds to Meet.
The King's Heralds of the First Methodist Episcopal Church will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 30 o'clock in the Cameron School in East Fairview avenue.

Rashes and Irritations
Hot baths with Cuticura Soap, followed by light applications of Cuticura Ointment, afford immediate relief in most cases of rashes, irritations, eczemas, etc. Cuticura Talcum is also excellent for the skin.

Miss Margaret Starn Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Starn of Summit town, N. H. and her only and Sherman Miller son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller of New York were married at Somerville, Mass. by Rev. J. A. Russell.

Inclosed I Greensburg, Harrisburg and Scandia and Milledale and Elverson were granted minutes here at Greenburg.

After Death.
At 11 o'clock on the morning of June 11, 1904, the body of Mrs. Mary Jane Allen was received at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Allen, and was placed in the care of the undertaker. The body was received at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Allen, and was placed in the care of the undertaker. The body was received at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Allen, and was placed in the care of the undertaker.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

When you mention white footware to the North Town Shoe Society the election of November 27th Miss S. M. Lyon of Kilmory Park spoke his way in the hall Every all day long it appears with a Go for Galt Shippin' Adverment 2 twice all

Miss Lottie Caring is spending a two weeks' vacation with blends at Confield.

Miss J. M. Sullivan and daughter Mrs. R. T. Mason of Pittsburgh, are

---

FRECKLES

For information only

[illegible]

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into bottles containing three ounces of each White which any drug store will supply for a few cents shake 1/4 and you have a winter proof of best freckle and tan bleach and complexion whitener

Make a thick sweetly fragrant lotion on it to the face neck arms and legs each day and see how freckles disappear, blotch out and how the soft and rosy-white the skin becomes

It is the home of Mrs. Suggs, mother in law and sister Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Shiller of Trump Avenue. It is a white canvas expanse of carpeting, a white spot rimmed in a gun metal or patent leather or a black barefoot windmill. Down the Store has enough to last until the fourth Advertisement 27 ft. Josephine and Katherine Harry daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barry North Pittsburg street went to meet at this morning, to visit Mr. and Mrs. S. Roy.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hornum and two children, Banita, in June of 1901, at Minneapolis, Minn. He is selling in the name of Mr. Freeman's brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Correll of West Falls, Minn. That Mr. Hornum is a former well known Congressman and a resident of Minneapolis. The Store has all kinds of fruit, and is now on the fourth street walk, back and is for want of man boys, girls and children. Addressment "7-11"

I am a member of the Dairy Association and in full will go to Pittsburgh to study the Hollandaise recipe and take it back to the District with me. I will be glad to help in any effort to raise the price of the recipe and to help in the effort to help the dairy industry. We have a very good recipe and will sell them during these holidays for the two for 2¢ regular price.

20 Cottage B Dairy Company

[illegible]

The first cargo of coal to be received in 20 years from Nova Scotia arrived last Saturday in the United States totaling 3,600 tons and consigned to the New York New Haven & Hartford Railroad from Sydney N. S. It is regarded as good quality bituminous and is admitted free of duty.

The last coal from Nova Scotia came to New England during the winter of 1902-1903 when there was a shortage of domestic coal. Other cargoes will follow.

The Lennox Club which is tied for first place in the City League with West Plains will play two games on the fourth with the Coal Barons leading team of the Uniontown City League a Reagan tied One will be in the morning the other in the afternoon.

Next Monday Lennox and West Plains will play off the league tie at Fayette field.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. June 29 (AP)—A resolution calling upon the State news papers to assist in suppressing the spread of so-called crime waves by eliminating the details of crime from the columns was adopted Wednesday by the Pennsylvania Bar Association here.

C. M. Abbott of Philadelphia, who introduced the resolution said "we do not want to muzzle the press, but we feel some of the details of murder, divorce suicide and crime should be eliminated."

at Sulph Level built by the members of the Church of the Ethiopian in Western Pennsylvania which took place Sunday afternoon with fitting ceremonies. One large home well accommodated all 100 people and together with the state represents an outlay of $100,000.

Valley Mines Still Closed

PUNASQUAMLEY, Pa. June 23.
The four-mile striping about 300 miles near Valley will be closed until May after a decision is given by state and federal shut down today, and herald S. V. Gossett who was in the one reported the situation quoted.
A much of strike is talked to materialize this month.

This is the one big day of the spring race meet at Dixson. Always in good condition the track itself is faster than ever before. This is the only other the past either has had exceptional time possible at all the races.

Tomorrow will be the final day of the Dixie spring meet, and although this afternoon card was an attractive one, the fastest rider of the meet is promised for 11 a. m. afternoon. All the drivers are anxious to show them best wares in order to gain the ability of the regular driver, the only last time season after tomorrow most of the horses will leave Dix on home to campaign over the Lake Erie circuit and others over the Kentucky circuit.

One Legislator Wants Whistles Placed on Stills, Another Would Compel Church Attendance.

The Kentucky legislator who proposed that moonshiners be compelled to allow to equip their stills with whistles that could be heard for two miles has an monopoly as the unusual in proposed legislation for the solons who sit in legislative halls at state capitals are prone to succumb irony and jest.

For example there is the bill introduced in the New York state assembly which hypocritically in a misdeed manner and defining it as the act of a person who for any gift or other valuable thing publicly advocates and promotes the sale of alcoholic beverages, forbids any excessive or personal flattery or the act of any person who

It is measure is aimed at reform of organization workers

The Massachusetts legislature had before it in this year a novel bill making church-going compulsory for every resident of the state who was physically or mentally capable of attending.

An other measure proposed in Massachusetts provided that every andote for public office must be examined by a Justice of the Supreme

A bill in the Massachusetts legislature authorized the appointment of a special legislative committee to make, on official Fourth of July visit to the Irish Free State at the expense of the

Some of the unusual legislation proposed is obviously aimed at what the authors regard as injustice.

Nonetheless who do not share in that contrit of the family is found a champion in Mrs Margaret Laid of Newark N J who introduced a bill in the New Jersey legislature enabling married women to control the wages they earn in their own homes.

Bathing or washing with Lifebuoy wakes you up. It wakes up the pores, the cells, the circulation. It makes the skin glow with health. It makes you feel fresh and fine for the day's work. Thousands of users are saying, "There's no soap like Lifebuoy."

LIFEBUOY
HEALTH SOAP

ORPHEUM

TODAY

---

Wanda Hawley
IN
'Her Face Value'

Also Two Reels of Good Comedy

Popular Priced Department Store
123 West Crawford Avenue, Woolworth Building, Connellsville, Pa.
ONE PRICE AND CASH.
S. & H. Green Stamps With Every Sale.

Assessment: Gentlemen $1.50. Ladies 75c

FALAPIAL FORSYTHE.

PALAPAL FORSYTHE.
Palapal Forsthe, 30 years old,
the home of his daughter Charles Sumner, at Easton last following a hemorrhage one of him while walking in and he was admitted to the and he died. Mr. Forsthe is and by his own daughter with a child and two brothers. W.
S. Smith and John at Elgin morning so well as to be able have morning at 10 o'clock at and Ray has been at Easton before. Intention will be made

Maccabee Hall

Thursday, June 29th
Hours 8 to 12.

[illegible]

from outdoor sports and hayed by machine.

10-11-68

The Most Phenomenal Sale Ever Held

Our Dress Buyer in New York Has Just Purchased

635 NEW SUMMER SILK AND WASH DRESSES!

Values That Originally Sold Up to $34.50

We Purchased These Dresses at Our Own Price

We Offer These Dresses

Friday, Saturday and Monday

AT LESS THAN COST TO MANUFACTURE

JUST IN TIME FOR THE FOURTH!

319 New Summer Silk Dresses

Smart New Models Just Out of the Workrooms of New York's Foremost Fashion Designers.

Dresses That Were Made to Sell at $29.50 and $34.50 Will Go at

Many Charming Models Offered in This Sale

All lovely flower-like shades as well as street colors in delightful cool fabrics—Canton Crepes, Georgettes, silk lace frocks, figured crepes, dotted foulards.

Brown, Cornflower, Jade, Mohawk, Rose

$8.99

Main Floor

Sizes for Women and Misses

Sports and tailor models, afternoon and dinner frocks, street dresses; dozens of attractive new models in sizes for women and misses.

Navy, Tan, Black, White and Other Shades

316 SUMMER WASH DRESSES

Dresses That Were Made to Sell at $15.00

316 high grade Wash Dresses, cool crisp, BRAND NEW Dresses that will astound you with their good materials, smart styles and BARGAIN PRICE! Be Here tomorrow morning at 8:30 for YOUR NEW SUMMER DRESS, at ONLY $4.99.

SIZES FOR WOMEN, MISSES and JUNIORS.

$4.99

Main Floor

Voiles, Organdies, Batistes, Rattines, Linens, Piques, Gingham and Dotted Swisses—some daintily trimmed with sheerest organdy ruffles, others tucked or lace-trimmed, many with tunics and loose panels. Lovely Dresses for every Summer Occasion, for $13.99. Choose from plain, figured, flowered and checked materials, in orchid, pink, blue, maize, red, yellow, navy and white.

See Window Display of These Marvelous Values!

Come Early

We Also Give S. & H. Green Trading Stamps With All Purchases

BOTH PHONES
BAZAAR DEPT. STORE
206 N. PITTSBURG ST. 210
CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

Labor Organizing Co-operative Banks In Various Centers

Five co-operative labor banks are being organized in the United States and one was recently opened in Chicago, according to the Locomotive Engineering Journal. Another, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' Co-operative National Bank, has been in existence a year and a half and its reported resources are nearly $15,000,000.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Holding Company has bought control of the Nottingham Savings & Banking Company of Cleveland, which is capitalized at $75,000 with reported resources of $65,000.

The Brotherhood of Railway & Steamship Clerks has instructed its grand officers to organize a bank with a probable capital of $500,000.

The executive board of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers has obtained a charter for a bank capitalized at $500,000 plus $100,000 surplus.

Workers of Birmanium, Inc., are organizing the Federal Bank & Trust Company with a capital stock of $500,000. Representatives of the four transportation brotherhoods in Minneapolis have applied for a charter for a national bank to be capitalized at $200,000 in the twin cities.

The new Chicago bank is that of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers' capital at $500,000.

House Rule Committee Sidetracks Bland Bill

The Bland bill providing for a Federal banking commission to investigate the coin industry has been sidetracked and will probably never be heard of again. This is the result of a House Committee on Rules refusing to grant a special rule which would make the bill privileged and permit it to be taken up for passage out of its regular turn. As it is now there are 20 many bills ahead of it that in all probability will not be reached at the present session of Congress.

In refusing to expedite the bill Representative Campbell of Kansas, chairman of the Rules Committee, criticized the swiftness of government coal investigators and lectured the Federal Reserve commission on its reluctance to gather the information on which the proposal of the Bland bill believes is a cessant in order to prevent future strikes. He admitted that the passage of the bill would have no effect on the present strike.

JS Carnegie Lurms In Blast. The Carnegie Steel Company has been forced to go into Pennsylvania in a third blast furnace at the Pittsburgh works giving the steel plant sufficient production to run full. This makes 38 blast furnaces in operation by the company, a gain of two in about a fortnight.

Wagon Mines and Trucks. Auto-trucks are in such great demand in the Mar auto section for wagon mines that road contractors

The Daily Courier
 HENRY P. SNYDER,
 Founder and Editor, 1879-1932.
 THE COURIER CO., Publishers.
 MRS. E. M. SNYDER,
 President.
 JAMES J. DRISCOLL,
 Secretary and Treasurer.
 JOHN L. GANS,
 Managing Editor.
 WALTER S. STIMMEL,
 City Editor.
 MISS LYNN B. KINCELL, Society Editor.
 MEMBER OF
 Associated Press
 American Newspaper Publishers Association
 Audit Bureau of Circulation Pennsylvania Associated Dailies.
 Two cents per copy, 15¢ per month, 50¢ per year by mail if paid in advance.
 Entered as second class matter at the postoffice, Connelleville, Pa.
 Member of The Associated Press.
 The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all the news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 29, 1932.

THE STRIKE CONFERENCE.
 The details of the plan whereby President Harding hopes to adjust a settlement of the coal miners' strike have not been made public beyond an announcement that representatives of both sides to the controversy have been invited to meet with the President next Saturday to "devise methods upon which negotiations for a settlement can be initiated."

It is understood, however, that President Harding, in calling this conference of operators and mine workers, is striving to have the meeting rise above the sharp controversies which have created the deadlock in the unbroken mining section, and to consider the situation from a broad standpoint of the public interest. The intention of the President and his advisers is that the conference shall not go beyond a discussion of ways and means of bringing about a settlement, avoiding, if it be possible, debate of the claims of the miners for a continuance of the war-time wage scale and of the operators' contentions concerning the desirability of making district instead of semi-national agreements.

If the deliberations can be limited, as the President hopes, to considering and adopting a mutually satisfactory basis upon which settlement can be negotiated, the conference will be a distinct achievement in the realm of mediation in industrial disputes, but its success will not be complete if it does not accomplish the full purpose of leading to a settlement which gives a recognition to the rights of the public as superior to those of the contending parties.
 The kind of settlement needed is one that will relieve the coal industry and fuel consumers of the interruptions, losses and inconveniences resulting from periodical strikes; give fair wages to mine workers and a reasonable profit to mine owners, and permit to all men the unrestricted privilege to exercise their constitutional right to work where, for whom and when they choose and the corresponding right of employers to make their choice of employees.

Without incorporation of these essentials in a final settlement, the peace which the coal industry needs and the public demands will be inconclusive and short lived.

BOOSTING MORE GOOD ROADS.

While the Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis Club will give organized direction to the movement to secure more improved roads in the vicinity of Connelleville, such as an additional section of the Connellevilleto-Farmington highway, citizens who are not members of either of these organizations have an opportunity and a duty to help boost such projects.

The public-spirited residents of Springfield and Stewart townships, to whose initiative much is due for the inauguration of this important undertaking, need not be urged to take part in the campaign to have the state extend the work already begun. The people along the line of the improved road are keenly alive to the advantages they will enjoy from its completion and can be depended upon to do their part. Some residents of Connelleville have need, however, to become somewhat more actively interested. They may, in general way, realize the benefits derived from good roads but they have not considered as fully as they should what such improvements mean to our city and vicinity.

Every additional mile of improved road which affords easy and quick access to sections of the tributary territory properly included in the city's trading district, has a direct influence in building up the commercial importance of Connelleville. Facilities are thus provided whereby a larger number of persons in the neighboring communities can trade in Connelleville, both as sellers of farm and garden products which they raise, and as buyers of the commodities our merchants have to sell. This means more business which inevitably leads to expansion along all lines and with consequent benefits to every resident of the city.

The opportunity to be helpful is one no citizen should neglect. You can boost good roads, and more of them, if not a member of the Chamber of Commerce, but you can do so even more effectively by first taking membership in that organization if not already enrolled. By that act you become a booster of everything intended to make the town more nearly what you would like it to become.

Want Help?
 Use our classified advertisements.

Loss of Carnivals Causes No Sorrow

Latrobe Bulletin.

With another carnival having been raided, in Westmoreland county,-- the second in a month--and with thirteen alleged gamblers having been taken into custody, it would appear as though the traveling carnival has not changed to any great extent.
 There may be clean carnivals, and there may be carnivals which do not tolerate gambling devices whose operations invariably redound to the financial gain of the operators,--but the great majority of them appear to be otherwise, judging from the trouble which they occasion, and from the reaction which follows their departure.

When carnivals must be raided so frequently, and when they must be supervised by police officials so frequently, it may be taken for granted that while there may be good carnivales, there also are carnivals whose influence is almost altogether in the opposite direction.

Most of them seem to lead to trouble and dissension wherever they go.
 They are a bone of contention in the communities which they visit. They make trouble, they lead to controversies--and in numerous cases they make work for the police.

The only be carnival which do not lead to these ill results: carnivals which pride themselves upon being able to keep within the law.

But even so, as one notes the trouble which so often is occasioned by carnivals, one has occasion for renewed satisfaction over the fact that for years Latrobe has found it possible to go along without carnivals of the professional type.

Time and time again, advance agents have come to look us over-- but when confronted with the borough ordinance against carnivals within the borough limits, and with the onerous regulations established, calculated to affect their operations,
 even if located outside the borough limits, they invariably have faded away.

And it is doubtful if Latrobe ever has been sorry to see them go.

Obligations of Service

Harrisburg Telegraph.

Chairman W. D. B. Abney's decision in disposing of complaints of Flaga county people against rural telephone service before the Public Service Commission that public utility enterprises must either give service or give way to others who will furnish facilities will not only terminate in principle several cases of like nature, but inform all what the state expects in return for its franchise. The public utilities have gone through a rough period. Everyone must admit that and those unfortunate enough to have been created with more hopes than capital have suffered as well as the people they were authorized to serve. In some cases lines and equipment have been allowed to deteriorate and bondholders compelled to add to memories rather than income tax returns. In others a system of allocation of resources somewhat bewildering has been evolved.

The commission has laid down various rules in regard to rates which are being gradually stiffened up as conditions improve and now comes the important declaration in the rural telephone case that "When a company engages in a public enterprise its obligation is to give adequate service is not discharged by showing lack of financial ability to perform its corporate obligations." In other words, the company must give service or quit.

This doctrine may be rough on people who put money into transportation, communication or other public utility enterprises, but its fairness can not be gainsaid. After all, if the public pays for service it must be furnished. Poor service at rates charged when service was good is no longer to be tolerated on the ground that conditions are unfavorable. The turn in business has come and people insist upon getting what they pay for. The commission in giving plain notice to that effect.

Laws Not A Cure-All

Lincoln, Neb., Journal.

One of the chief reasons why our post-war period of reconstruction has extended over so long a time is the unsound notion we have had that laws will solve serious economic and social problems. We have turned to Congress and to our state legislatures for remedies when as a matter of fact the only remedy was to be found within ourselves individually. We have cluttered up our statutes with laws which only made the return to stability more complicated instead of easier.

There are now signs of a revolt against the passage of numberless laws and it is a welcome and hopeful sign. The lawmakers for our lawmakers in the future should be fewer laws and less tampering with private business and individual enterprise.
 Progress is made by human beings, not by legislation.

Driver of Rathenau Death Car Arrested

By Associated Press.

FRANKFURT-ON-ODER, Germany, June 29.--Johann Werner Tschow of Berlin, a student, 31 years old, who the police declared was the driver of the murder car in the assassination of Foreign Minister Rathenau last Saturday, was arrested in the vicinity of this city today.

Patronize those who advertise.

DIRECTOR OF THE BUDGET DAVES "HERE'S A FEW DOLLARS WE SAVED YOU."

THE BUSY SUMMER COTTAGE.

Our friends have automobiles now. The summer cottage where we went to rest beside the water a blue in peace and innocent content. In but an hour's bright and early Sunday morning the breakfast eggs are cooked we hear the tinkling of the horn and the engine starts.
 We must have had our suits for ten although our friends, number four,
 this must be made to all who come,
 though, rather sleep upon the floor.
 Dishes and knives and forks and spoons are gathered in one huge display.
 For we must be prepared to feed the visitors who come our way.

From Friday noon till Monday morning full many a weary trip I take, howling the women and their babies upon the bosom of the lake.
 And by that law which rules a host I'm as the money of the crowd.
 I must shut my eyes to goodness, do everything they wish to do.

The chief in your large hotel is not a business man but a man of letters.
 The chef for fifty hungry mouths it is my duty now to try.
 And thus my glad vacation time from dawn to dusk is in a twinkling over.
 For friends have made our evening spot
 the busiest place in all outdoors.
 (Copyright, 1932 by Edgar A. Guest.)

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Wanted.

WANTED--YOUR BARBERING business. KENDRICK.
 214 Franklin Ave.
 29June32

WANTED--DRIVERS. INQUIRE
 214 Franklin Ave.
 29June32

WANTED--LIVING ROOM CHILL
 Star Restaurant
 29June32

WANTED--A HALL. EXPERT in repair of Insulation for Friday night. Cottage Laker
 29June32

WANTED--SUNNY BURNER ON
 Erie street. Apply 3 ahead of Columbia Hotel, West Side. 29June32

WANTED--MIDDLE AGED. Oldily lady as housekeeper. Call 240-
 W. R. 2nd State after 5:30 P. M.
 29June32

WANTED--EXPERIENCED DRIVER for bread truck. Apply 3 ahead of Templeton & Bertha Bakery, Connelleville.
 29June32

WANTED--SEVERAL DOUBLE houses, centrally located. Will pay reasonable price for good investment.
 Address: 1111 Oak Corridor. 29June32

WANTED--A REFINED BUSINESS woman desired room and board (except noon meal) in a quiet private family centrally located. Address: "Luminous" care Courier. 29June32

WANTED--POSITION AS STENOgrapher. Five years' experience. Insurance work preferred. Can speak three languages. Call 224 by mail. 29June32

WANTED--FURNISHED ROOM. Plan-
 Toler, formerly of Mountview, Pa., 19
 call at Red Cross office, 411 Fayetteville 2nd & Third, building, Uniontown. between 2 A. M. and P. M. 29June32

WANTED--TO RENT ROOM. OR eight room house in good location.
 For immediate possession. Must be modern and up-to-date. Will not consider up old house. Write Box 728
 Connelleville, Pa. 29June32

For Rent.
 FOR RENT--ROOMS. 25-X Third
 State. 29June32

FOR RENT--ROOM 228 FAIRVIEW
 Avenue. 29June32

FOR RENT--FIVE ROOM HOUSE
 111 E. Snyder street. Call 813 29June32

FOR RENT--PHYSICIAN'S OFFICE.
 Apply Dr. L. Shaffer, 111 W. Clearford. 29June32

FOR RENT--SIX ROOM DOUBle and bath, black, inquire 11 N. Pittsburgh St. 29June32

FOR RENT--FURNISHED ROOMS
 for light housekeeping, 214 N. Arch St.
 Bell 111. 29June32

FOR RENT--FURNISHED ROOMS.
 Inquire 258 West Arch St. Tri-State
 phone 54-2. 29June32

FOR RENT--TWO AND THREE room unfurnished apartment houses.
 Santa, Smith Bldg. 29June32

FOR RENT--NICE FURNISHED front room. All sort of conveniences.
 Phone preferred, 521 Race St.
 29June32

Abe Martin

Wouldn't it be fine if we could run our life?
 The fellow with the best ideas is always hooked up where he can't use 'em.
 Copyright National Newspaper Service.

For Sale.

FOR SALE--MOLDING BED MISS
 Case, 112 Porter Ave. 29June32

FOR SALE--ADVERTISING SPACE in this paper. Ask for rates.
 29June32

FOR SALE--OLDS EIGHT TOURING, car. See Geo. Wagner, Schenck Theatre.
 29June32

FOR SALE--A GOOD LOW AND heavy P. H. Mulac, Route 1, Dawson
 29June32

FOR SALE--1930 LATE CABBAGE plants. See per 100, $1.50 per 50. M. J.
 Tully, Truckee. 29June32

FOR SALE--3/4 TON GRASS
 Bernheim truck. First class condition.
 Price reasonable. Apply 201 N. First street. 29June32

FOR SALE--REFRIGERATOR.
 (Underneath oak stove, leading from east door, clean, beveled plate interior, 14 1/2 inch. 29June32

FOR SALE--BABY CARRIAGE.
 wicker, reversible. Good condition.
 Price reasonable. Mrs. J. W. Jones,
 29June32

FOR SALE--RIVER SAND 112 TON delivered, stone and cement. Call Tri-State 722 or 714, Bell 109. C. E. Bloom and L. L. Swift. 29June32

FOR SALE--JUST RECEIVED A car of new 1931 Buick, call 535 or 1023 Bell or 634 or 423-W. 29June32

FOR SALE--10 ROOM DOUBle house, West Side Hill. Inquire 1234 W.
 Crawford Ave. or C. A. Crowley, Tri-
 State Phone 339. 29June32

FOR SALE--GAS RANGE. High oven 18.00 and not plate $1.00, both good as new. Call at 104 E. Morton Ave., Connelleville, Pa. 29June32

FOR SALE--TWO TON CYCLES.
 dual truck with automatic dump body.
 Good condition. Will sell at low
 figure. C. F. Stauder, Scottsdale, Bell
 262-M. 29June32

FOR SALE--HARLEY DAVIDSON
 motorcycle, 2 cyl. 3 speed with side car.
 New, never used, at 100.00. Side car dual tanks. W. Crawford Ave., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--FIVE LOTS ON SOUTH Pittsburgh street on North Side of Tippecanoe. Inquire John Irwin, J. A.
 Doyle, E. H. Plaza. 29June32

FOR SALE--FARM. 35 ACRES good planted, three room house, large cellar, good size barn and other out-buildings, two cows, one heifer, two well milked. Various prices. Terms.
 Inquire Thomas Kovak, West Side.
 29June32

FOR SALE--A NUMBER OF
 double houses, rental income 3 per cent
 to 10 per cent net on investment.
 Several good single houses for home-
 use. Call 214. 29June32

FOR SALE--A NUMBER OF
 double houses, rental income 3 per cent
 to 10 per cent net on investment.
 Several good single houses for home-
 use. Call 214. 29June32

FOR SALE--A NUMBER OF
 double houses, rental income 3 per cent
 to 10 per cent net on investment.
 Several good single houses for home-
 use. Call 214. 29June32

FOR SALE--A NUMBER OF
 double houses, rental income 3 per cent
 to 10 per cent net on investment.
 Several good single houses for home-
 use. Call 214. 29June32

FOR SALE--A NUMBER OF
 double houses, rental income 3 per cent
 to 10 per cent net on investment.
 Several good single houses for home-
 use. Call 214. 29June32

FOR SALE--A NUMBER OF
 double houses, rental income 3 per cent
 to 10 per cent net on investment.
 Several good single houses for home-
 use. Call 214. 29June32

For Sale.

FOR SALE--SIX LOTS ON SOUTH Side. Inquire A. W. Bowman, Bell
 235, Tri-State 50. 29June32

FOR SALE--GRAY HORSE. SIX years old, $155. Jacob Schenck, Perryville, Pa. 29June32

FOR SALE--1921 PAIGE ROADster, elegant shape, low mileage. Price $2400. West Side Garage, West
 Crawford Ave. 29June32

FOR SALE--GOOD BUSINESS property on East Crawford avenue, near Pittsburgh street, Connelleville, Pa. This property will be sold at a bargain. Kelly & Cook, First National Bank, Connelleville, Pa. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

FOR SALE--SPEAKER.
 Sander Bldg., Connelleville. 29June32

Reliable Gas Ranges

Aire True to Name

We have them with or without the Lorain Oven Regulator.

Be sure and see this range before you buy.

ANDERSON-LOUCKS HARDWARE CO.

MAKE THIS COMPARISON

If you buy groceries, you must be interested in dealing where you get the most for your money--most value and most service

NEWS OF DAY AT MOUNT PLEASANT BRIEFLY RELATED

Miss Jean Mack and Paul Clement Will Be Married This Evening.

CARNIVAL GIRL IMPROVES

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, June 29.—Miss Jean Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Mack, and Paul Clement of Latrobe, will be quietly married at 5 o'clock this evening at the bride's North Diamond street home. The wedding will be very quiet, the guests being limited to the immediate members of both families and a few close personal friends.

Show Girl Improved.
The condition of Ethel McDonald, the carnival girl who drank acetone in the Costabile barber shop on Tuesday, was improving yesterday at the Memorial Hospital.

At Brethren Church.
The First Brethren Church, Rev. W. A. Croft, pastor, has announced the following services for Sunday: Bible school, 9:45; preaching, 11; subject, "The Lord's Supper"; preaching, 7:30; subject, "The Need of a Physician."

For Former Resident.
Mrs. G. W. Stoner entertained at her home on Tuesday afternoon at a tea in honor of Miss Edith McCaleb of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., a former resident of this place.

Personal News.
Miss Genevieve Mullin, a student at Otterbein College, has returned home for the summer vacation.
Mrs. Clara Imhoff has returned from Warren, O., where she visited with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carbaugh.
Mrs. Anna Kimmell of Wilkensburg is visiting at her home here.

Claims Indigestion Easy to Get Rid Of

Asserts Pepsin is Best When Combined With Other Good Ingredients and in Liquid Form.

Connellsville Drug Co. Guarantees It and is Dispensing It to Many Stomach Sufferers.

You can be so distressed with indigestion that you think your heart is going to stop beating.
Your stomach may be so distended that your breathing is short and heavy.
You are dizzy and feel as if you are going to faint.
Just one dose of Dore's Menth-Pepsin and in 10 minutes the pain disappears, the pressure on the stomach ceases and you can breathe deep and naturally.
Oh! What blessed relief! But why not get rid of such attacks altogether? Why have chronic indigestion and all its attendant troubles? With this wonderful medicine you can banish indigestion or dyspepsia of any abnormal condition that keeps the stomach in constant rebellion and one bottle will prove it.
And how happy you will be when your stomach is as good as new for then dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness, headache and other ailments caused by a disordered stomach will disappear and you will be your old happy, contented self again. Connellsville Drug Co., and every regular pharmacist, guarantees a large bottle of Dore's Menth-Pepsin that costs only one dollar to show the way to stomach comfort.—Advertisement

Iron Bridge

IRON BRIDGE, June 29.—Mrs. Milton Metz, Mrs. Tony Schaefer of Mount Pleasant, and Mrs. Reuben Gauss of Elverson, spent Wednesday here with the former's sister, Mrs. Glenn Miller.

Mrs. Margaret Miller returned to her home at Indian Head Sunday after a several weeks' visit with the family of her brother, Balbridge Pitts and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Pitts and children motored to Trauger Sunday and visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. Jesse Hubbard and children of Russdale were here Saturday visiting, the former's sister, Mrs. John H. Pitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wingrove and baby returned Sunday evening from a week's visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wingrove near Wooddale.

Mrs. Evans Barcon and children of Pittsburgh were here Thursday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Crosby.

Mrs. Harry Faith and niece, Miss Ruth Faith, and Miss Laura Jean Truxal visited the family of their friend, Mrs. P. O. Mosier of North Scottsdale, Sunday.

She Thanks Parisian Sage for Her Glorious Hair

Why wouldn't she be grateful? Once she had thin, scraggly, lifeless hair that no one liked. Now she has luxuriant and beautiful hair that fascinates and attracts all eyes. And Parisian Sage did it. This habit-forming and hair-growing mover is sold by all druggists and at toilet goods counters. Connellsville Drug Co. guarantees it.—Advertisement

Ohiopyle

OHIOPYLE, June 29.—Mrs. Edward Jerriss of Confluence spent Tuesday calling on friends here.

Mrs. Cyrus Shaw has returned to her home from a visit at Johnstown. Mrs. D. M. Shaw and baby of Farmington are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Shaw on Commercial street.
Clarence Burroughs returned to Ohiope yesterday after a visit in Connelville.

Patronize those who advertise.

Cities Pass Laws to Save Homes by Making Roofs More Resistant to Fire

Fifty families made homeless and thirteen homes gutted by fire that destroyed three blocks of Chicago's shingle roof district.

DRASTIC changes in the fire regulations of cities all over the country have followed the compilation of figures by the National Board of Fire Underwriters showing the tremendous lessons learned by a study of the 3,000,000 and more fires that occurred from 1916 to 1930.

The total loss for that period was $1,673,732,877, which would be enough to have built 334,000 dwellings costing $5,000 apiece, or enough housing to care for 1,700,000 people. That means a number as large as the combined populations of Connecticut, Nevada and Wyoming. Most of these fires were preventable.

The records show that at least $233,000,000 of the property destroyed was by fires due to sparks communicating through the roof. Roof fires are among those considered easily preventable. Yet the records in many cities show that some 40 per cent of all conflagrations have resulted from

Obstinate Cases of Hemorrhoids (Piles)

We note with satisfaction that a well known physician in his hospital and private practice has discovered that Moore's Emerald Oil will remove the most obstinate piles with such few applications and keep all itching, burning, bleeding and distress.

Sufferers should get a small bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil and begin the treatment at once. It is a remedy that is easily applied and is free and safe.

Connellsville Drug Co. and all good druggists have it, or can get it for you on short notice.

Confluence

CONFLUENCE, June 29.—Ben Brown of Pittsburgh was here this week visiting his father, Thomas Brown, and other relatives.

Mrs. Andrew Schell and two children have returned to their home in Cumberland, Md., after a visit here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Gerhard of the West Side.

C. S. Robinson of Winchester, Va.,

who is interested in a coal mine on the W. C. branch, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Durnow, h of Uniontown is here visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lytle.

F. S. Kregar of Draketown was here yesterday on his way to Somerset on business.

Mrs. Harry Boyd of Bradfield arrived here yesterday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Little, her father being ill.

Mrs. G. W. Lehnert, mother of this place, visited friends here yesterday.

Perryopolis

PERRYOPOLIS, June 29.—J. J. Potter and C. D. Chaffin were business callers at Confluence Monday evening.

C. T. Davidson and son, John of Washington, Pa., are calling on friends in town.

Mrs. William Lacey of Connetts was calling on friends and relatives here.

Changing to Nine 11. Some of the retail coal dealers at Confluence have decided to adopt the metric ton as their selling basis for anthracite, in spite of the fact that the gross ton is the "real" unit of weight in Maryland. They are getting around this difficulty by not using the word "ton" at all when making sales, or quoting prices, but employing the term "2,000 pounds" instead.

When Baby Complains.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS a baby has of expressing any pain or irregularity of digestion or other distress. A short sharp cry, a prolonged wailing cry, a constant turning of the head or of the whole body, fretful. In these and other ways a baby tells you there is something wrong. Most mothers know that a disordered stomach, or bowels that do not act naturally, is the cause of most of baby's suffering. A call for the doctor in the first thought, but in the event of any delay there should be ready at hand a safe remedy such as Fletcher's Castoria.

Castoria has been used for baby's ailments for over 30 years and has merited the good will of the family physician in a measure not equaled by any other baby's medicine because of its harmlessness and the good results achieved.

And remember this: Castoria is essentially a baby's remedy and not a cure-all for every member of the family. What mother would not want to know how to help her baby when it is in trouble?

Castoria always bears the signature of

W. D. Little

VALUABLE PREMIUMS

Your choice of hundreds of valuable premiums given FREE with Elephant Trade Marks from RUB-N-MORE CO. Soap, Rub-N-More Yellow Toilet Soap, Rub-N-More Washing Powder, Rub-N-More More Soap Flakes and Spotless Cleaner. Buy them at your grocer. Trade Marks redeemable at the RUB-N-MORE CO.

Port Wayne, Indiana

Write for Illustrated Premium Catalogue

RUMORS OF LOW COAL SUPPLY UNCONFIRMED BY STEEL ACTIVITY

Input Production Now Running at Rate of 30,000,000 Tons a Year, Big Gain Since April 1.

Special to The Weekly Courier.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The American Metal Market and Daily Iron & Steel Report will review the steel and iron trade tomorrow as follows:

Talk in the business circles generally that the country's coal supply is running rather low is not confirmed by what occurs in the steel industry, which is even now slightly increasing its operations. Full details are not furnished as to where the coal and coke are coming from, but the mill and furnace operation occurs. The United States Steel Corporation, for instance, last Saturday blew in its only tide furnace at Lorain, while before the end of this week another stack at New Castle will be started, making 24 active Carnegie stacks, while the National Tube Company has nine active.

Steel input production is now running at all of 30,000,000 tons a year, making rate of about 35,000,000 tons a year at the time the coal strike started and 20,000,000 tons last December. This is the showing of the steel industry after three months of the strike, but this may not be a criterion of coal conditions generally.

There has been a further decrease in the volume of turnouts in the distribution of steel markets. Mills attribute this to their unwillingness to sell for late deliveries, rather than to any decrease in the buying pressure. On the majority of products early deliveries command premiums and with the decrease in forward buying a larger proportion of the tonnage now done is at the higher prices in the ranges quoted on various products. More bars, shapes and plates are selling at 1.65c, 1.70c and higher than at 1.60c.

The steel mills in general are very comfortably filled with business for July and August and so far as their order books are concerned will be able to maintain production without the aid of any additional sales of consequence. A decidedly quiet summer period in the market is to be expected. While consumers may not have large stocks there has been some replenishing since the first of the year. The common prediction is that actual consumption will increase so that the stocks will be needed.

His Friend Recommended Them.
"Six years ago," writes W. H. Shaw, Stanley, Va., "I had kidney trouble, and at times was unable to raise myself in bed. Foley Kidney Pills were recommended to me by the Chief of the Fire Department. After using 3 bottles I was completely relieved and have never had a return of the symptoms. Why suffer when you can get relief from rheumatic pains, backache, swollen, sore and stiff joints, sleep disturbing bladder weakness and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. Sold everywhere.—Advertisement

Pittstown

PRITTSVILLE, June 29.—Nathan Truxal of Ligonier was here Sunday visiting his brother, Charles Truxal.

Rev. C. A. McCally and son, Ray, of Indian Head were here last Sunday last week visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Truxal and John Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kough, son Fred and daughter Grace and Mrs. John C. Milligan were at Mount Pleasant Sunday visiting the family of the former's son, Mr. Jacob Leasure.

Mr. and Mrs. William May returned Saturday from a week spent at Greensburg visiting the family of their sister, Mrs. W. D. Best.

Any Real Estate for Sale? Use our classified advertisements

DAVIDSON'S We Will Save You Money

Humaid Seedless Raisins, package.....22c
Extra Cleaned Currants, package.....20c
Fancy Peaches, a pound.....25c
California Lima Beans, 2 pounds.....25c
Fancy Navy Beans, 2 pounds.....25c
Fancy Head Rice, 2 pounds.....25c
Servus Tomato Soup, 4 cans.....25c
Extra Good Sugar Corn, 3 cans.....25c
Fancy Tomatoes, No. 2 size, 2 cans.....25c
Crisco, 1 lb. can 22c; 3 pound can.....55c
Jell-O, all flavors, a package.....10c
Fruit Pudding, all flavors, package.....10c
Servus Catsup, a bottle.....10c
Snider's Catsup, large bottle.....28c

Sulder's Raspberry Jam, large jar.....20c
Preston Strawberry Jam, large jar.....30c
Quart Jar Apple Butter.....50c
Large Tumbler Mustard.....20c
Preston Salad Dressing, a jar.....37c
Preston Silver Polish, a jar.....20c
Noel Furniture Polish, large bottle.....35c
Servus Soap, 12 bars.....50c
White Laundry Soap, 9 bars.....50c
Gold Dust, large package.....28c
Peanut Butter, 1 lb. pail.....20c
Pure Cocoa (loose), a pound.....10c
Macaroni or Spaghetti, full pound.....15c
(You pay 10c for an 8 oz. package)

Litac Flour, 24 pound sack.....$1.20
Extra Good Fig Newtons, a pound.....17c
Strictly Fresh Eggs, a dozen.....30c
Fancy New Potatoes, a peck (15 pounds).....60c
Sunk Flax, a can.....23c
Galvanized Pails, 10 quart size.....23c

AT OUR MEAT COUNTER

California Hams, a pound.....18c
Beef Liver, 2 pounds.....25c
Hamburg Steak, a pound.....20c
Fancy Sugar Cured Bacon, 1 pounds.....$1.00
All Kinds of Luncheon Meats, Dressed Hens or Spring Chickens.

J. R. Davidson Company "THE STORE THAT DOES THINGS FOR YOU."

MONTHS OF SUFFERING

How a Baltimore Girl Recovered Her Health

Baltimore, Maryland.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your booklet at home one day and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls as the letters in your book helped me."—ROSE WARDNER, 3018 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.

That is the thought so often expressed in letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These women know what they have suffered, they describe their symptoms and state how they were finally made well. Just plain statements, but they want other women to be helped.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the sickness women so often have, which is indicated by backache, weak feelings, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?

Dawson

DAWSON, June 29.—William H. Newmyer has returned to his home in Bellevue after a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

The house of W. H. Heeson, East Liberty, is being newly painted.

Mrs. J. W. Brower and family are home from a week's visit at Youngstown, O.

S. W. Inks was looking after some business matters in Pittsburgh Tuesday.

Paul Herbert and Paul Landmore are Pittsburgh visitors today.

The floor of the Dawson bridge has been repaired. Quite a number of planks had given way. A force of men has been working it the past week, getting it in shape for the cars.

The game of horse auto never loses its place in the life of sport. Some very interesting games are pitched in Dr. Conan's alley, and the doctor, Prof. R. K. Smith and M. J. Glass know how to hand it them.

Mrs. Harry Cochran and sister, Mrs. Carrie Ober, were Pittsburgh visitors on Monday.

Nelson Springfield has returned to Pittsburgh after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Springfield, North Dawson.

Patronize those who advertise.

Daily Fashion Hint

The girl at the left wears a tunic dashing and on the right a dainty net blouse, also trimmed with red and white chevrons. The girl at the right wears a tunic in a bold design makes the center of the picture that is good.

Banish Biliousness, Constipation

Make your liver well

Take

and other dyspeptic disorders by a short course of Beecham's Pills—the unfailing remedy for all irregularities of the digestive organs. For eliminating waste products from the system, improving the appetite, strengthening the stomach, and in other respects keeping the bodily health in a sound condition

Beecham's Pills 10c—12 pills 25c—40 pills 50c—90 pills

WHY NOT

POPLAR GROVE

and look over the Plan of Lots. It is only a five-minute street car ride or a 15-minute walk to Brimstone Corner. City water, school and church nearby. The lots are 60x140 feet. C. B. McCORMICK, Agent, Box 144. Connelville, residence Poplar Grove. Buy a lot at Poplar Grove

Now

Use Our Classified Ads—They Bring Results.

Erskine Dale Pioneer

by John Fox, Jr.

Illustrated by R.H. Livingstone

Again a kindly fate intervened. When as Grey rushed for his sword, Erskine heard the beat of horses.

The Sword-Blades Clashed, Erskine Whirling Back and Forth in a Way to Make a Swordsman Groan.

boots. As he snatched it from the ground and turned, with a wicked smile over his grinning teeth, came Harry's shout, and as he rushed for Erskine, Colonel Dale swung from his horse. The sword-blades clashed, Erskine whirling back and forth in a way to make a swordsman groan—and Colonel Dale had Erskine by the wrist and was between them.

"How dare you, sir?" cried Grey boldly.

"Just a moment, young gentleman," said Colonel Dale calmly.

"Let us alone, Uncle Harry—I—"

"Just a moment," repeated the colonel sternly. "Mr. Grey, do you think I am quite fair that you with your skill should fight a man who knows nothing about folks?"

"There was no other way," Grey said solemnly.

"And you could not wait, I presume?" Grey did not answer.

"Now, hear what I have to say, and if you both do not agree, the matter will be arranged to your entire satisfaction. Mr. Grey, I have but one question to ask. Your country is at war. She needs every man for her defense. Do you not think your fight belongs to your country and that it is selfish and unpatriotic just now to risk men in any other cause? He waited for his meaning to sink in, and winked it did.

"Colonel Dale, your nephew grossly insulted me, and your daughter showed me the door. I made no defense to him nor to her, but I will to you. I merely repeated what I had heard and I believed it true. Now that I hear it is not true, I agree with you, sir, and I am willing to express my regrets and apologies."

"That is better," said Colonel Dale heartily, and he turned to Erskine, but Erskine was crying hoarse.

"And I express neither."

"Very well," sneered Grey coldly. "Perhaps we may meet when your relatives are not present to protect you."

"One Harry—," Erskine implored, but Grey was turning toward his horse.

"After all, Colonel Dale is right."

"Yes," assented Erskine helplessly, and then—"It is possible that we shall not always be on the same side."

"So I thought," returned Grey with lifted eyebrows, "when I heard what I did about you." Both Harry and Erskine had to catch Erskine by an arm then, and they led him struggling away. Grey mounted his horse, lifted his hat and was gone. Colonel Dale picked up the sword.

"Now," he said, "enough of all this—let it be forgotten."

And he laughed.

"You'll have to confess, Erskine—he has a quick tongue and you must think only of his temptation to use it."

Erskine did not answer.

As they rode back Colonel Dale spoke of the war. It was about to move to Virginia, he said, and when it did—both Harry and Erskine interrupted him with a loud shout:

"We can go!" Colonel Dale nodded and.

Suddenly all pulled their horses in simultaneously and raised their eyes, for all heard the clatter of a horse in a dead run. Around a thickened curve of the road came Erskine, with her face white and her hair streaming behind her. She pulled her pony in but a few feet in front of them, with her burning eyes on Erskine alone.

"Have you killed him—have you killed him? If you have—"

She stopped helpless, and all were amazed that she could answer. Erskine shook his head. There was a flash of relief in the girl's white face, its redness gave way to sudden shame, and, without a word, she wheeled and was away again—Harry flying after her. No one spoke. Colonel Dale looked at Erskine and Erskine's heart aching sick.

CHAPTER XX

The sun was close to the uneven sweep of the wilderness. Through its slanting rays the river poured like a flood of gold. The negroes were on the way singing from the fields. Cries, whistles, and the musical clanking of trace-chains came from the barnyard. Hungry cattle were mooing and full-attended mothers were mooing answers to hawking calves. A peacock screamed from a distant tree and sailed forth. Full-spread—a great gleaming white jewel of the air. In crisis the nerves tighten like violin strings, the memory-plates turn abnormally sensitive—and Erskine was not to forget that hour.

The house was still and not a soul was in sight as the three, still silent, walked up the great path. When they were near the door Harry came out. He looked worried and anxious.

"Where's Barbara?" asked her father.

"Locked in her room."

"Let her alone," said Colonel Dale sternly. "Like brother and cousin, Harry and Hugh were merely irritated by the late revelation, but the father was shocked that his child was no longer a child. Erskine remembered the girl as she waited for Grey's coming at the sundial, her face as she walked with him up the path. For a moment the memory stood in a moody silence. Harry took the rapier in and put them in their place on the wall. Hugh, quietly disappeared. Erskine, with a word of apology, went to his room, and Colonel Dale sat down on the porch alone.

As the dusk gathered, Erskine looking closely at his watch, he saw the girl flutter like a white moth past the hedge and down the path. A moment later he saw the tall form of Colonel Dale follow her—and both passed from sight. On the thick turf the colonel's feet too were noiseless, and when Barbara stopped at the sundial he too passed. She was unhappy, and the colonel's heart ached sorely for any unhappiness of hers always troubled his own.

"Little girl!" he called, and no lower voice could have been more gentle. "Come here!"

She turned and saw him, with arms outstretched, the low moon lighting all the tenderness in his fine old face, and she flew to him and fell to weeping on his breast. In wise silence he stroked her hair until she grew a little calmer.

"What's the matter, little daughter?"

"I—I don't know."

"I understand. You were quite right to send him away, but you did not want him harmed."

"I—I didn't want anybody harmed."

"I know. It's too bad, but none of us seem quite to trust him."

"That's it," she sobbed; "I don't, either, and yet—"

"I know. I know. My little girl must be wise and brave, and maybe it will all pass and she will be glad. But she must be brave. Mother is not well and she must not be made unhappy. My little girl come back to the house now? She must be honest and this is Erskine's last night." She looked up, brushing away her tears.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

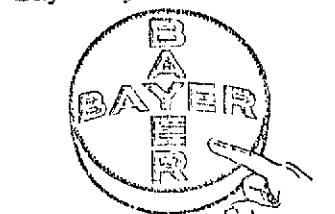

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

ASPIRIN

Say "Bayer" and Insist!

Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting the genuine Bayer product prescribed by physicians over 22 years and proven safe by millions for:

Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Pain, Flu.

Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proper directions. Handy boxes of 12 tablets cost few cents. Drugists also sell bottles of 21 and 100. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacturing of Monroeville, Pa. Advertisers of Salsolite-Adve.

and does more work than his brothers. He will grant that that son is entitled to more. He wants to let out all his children of class. He can't do that, but he will pass this on.

"I hope he will," muttered Erskine.

"Barbara would not know your sacrifice nor would any of us, and it is only fair that I should want you that some day, if you should change your mind, and I were no longer living, you might be too late."

"Please don't, Uncle Harry. It is done—done. Of course, I will not fail for me to consider Barbara alone, but she will be fair and you understand. I wish you would regard the whole matter as though I didn't exist."

"I can't do that, my boy. I am your steward and when you want me with you I have only to be here now."

Erskine shook his head.

"I don't want anything I need very little, and when I am in the woods, as the dusk gathered, Erskine looking closely at his watch, he saw the girl flutter like a white moth past the hedge and down the path. A moment later he saw the tall form of Colonel Dale follow her—and both passed from sight. On the thick turf the colonel's feet too were noiseless, and when Barbara stopped at the sundial he too passed. She was unhappy, and the colonel's heart ached sorely for any unhappiness of hers always troubled his own.

"Little girl!" he called, and no lower voice could have been more gentle. "Come here!"

She turned and saw him, with arms outstretched, the low moon lighting all the tenderness in his fine old face, and she flew to him and fell to weeping on his breast. In wise silence he stroked her hair until she grew a little calmer.

"What's the matter, little daughter?"

"I—I don't know."

"I understand. You were quite right to send him away, but you did not want him harmed."

"I—I didn't want anybody harmed."

"I know. It's too bad, but none of us seem quite to trust him."

"That's it," she sobbed; "I don't, either, and yet—"

"I know. I know. My little girl must be wise and brave, and maybe it will all pass and she will be glad. But she must be brave. Mother is not well and she must not be made unhappy. My little girl come back to the house now? She must be honest and this is Erskine's last night." She looked up, brushing away her tears.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

"Well, it isn't that bad, but my little girl must be very unhappy, too."

Barbara looked thoughtful, but there was no pretense of not understanding.

"I'm sorry," she said. She took her father's arm, and when they reached the steps Erskine saw her smiling. And smiling, almost gay, she was at supper, sitting with exquisite dignity in her mother's place. Of Erskine, who sat at her right, she asked many questions about the coming campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign. Captain Clark had the colonel's campaign.

"This last night? Ah, wise old colonel!"

"Yes—he goes tomorrow to John Caplin Clark at Williamsburg on his foolish campaign in the Northwest. We might never see him again."

"Oh, father!"

Soisson Theatre

Today, Tomorrow and Saturday

Fightin' Mad

STARRING
William Desmond

Also a Good Comedy and Weekly
A GOOD MUSICAL PROGRAM BY THE ORCHESTRA
Admission 10c and 30c, Including Tax.

MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY
CAMILLE

WITH RUDOLPH VALENTINO AND NAZIMOVA

Paramount Theatre

TODAY

"His Back Against The Wall"

Starring
Raymond Hatton

Comedy—Three Weeks Off
Admission 10c and 20c, Including Tax.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
FIGHTING HEARTS
WITH BILL FAIRBANKS

Smallest Weekly Increase But Largest Regional Total Since Ebb In Tide Set In

Production 68,050; Loaded Stock 1,800, or 69,550 Tons, to Consumers.

SITUATION MORE TENSE

Disorders More Frequent and Tending to Greater Violence as Restlessness of the Strikers Grows Apace; 126 More Ovens Fired; Demand Active.

From The Weekly Courier

Although the gain in production of coke during the week ended June 23 was the smallest of the weeks in which gains have been registered, the total output was the largest since the week of April 15. Fresh coke aggregating 68,050 tons was made and shipped and 1,800 tons loaded from the stock piles on the yards making the week's consignments to consumers approximately 70,000 tons.

The week was without noteworthy developments in the direction of a more general resumption of activity except that the H. C. Frick Coke Company continued to fire up more ovens and a number of mines enlarged their production and shipments of raw coal. At each of eight different Frick operations from three to 30 ovens were added to the producing list, the additions totaling 126, which increased the total in blast at this company's 28 active operations to 5,229 ovens. This number is 78 1/2 per cent of those in blast on April 1 and represents a gain of 1,552 ovens or 42 1/2 per cent since the week of May 6 at which time the recovery began. Operating conditions at the merchant plants were unchanged other than a slight increase in the weekly rate of production. Neither the independent furnace producers nor the merchant operators made additions to the 11 plants and 1,066 ovens reported in running during the week ending June 17.

While there is steady but slow progress being made toward still more general resumption of both coal and coke plant operation and more men are being given employment from week to week the situation is becoming somewhat more tense than at any time during the progress of the strike. The restlessness among the striking workmen is becoming more noticeable. Disorders have become of more frequent occurrence with the disposition to greater violence on part of those taking part in them. The peace authorities find it necessary to increase their vigilance and to place still greater restrictions on actions, at what the organizers pretend to deliver idleness.

The number of men leaving the region to seek employment in the non-union mines of other districts is increasing but the increase thus created are being in part supplied by men who migrate from other districts to the Connellsville region for the same reason. Here and there men are mustering up courage enough to return to work but the bulk of them are still deterred from doing so by fear of reprisals on part of the more radical strikers.

The decline in production from April 1 to May 6 and the slow upward trend since that date with the weekly decrease and gains are shown in the following:

Week Ending	Production	Weekly Decrease Gain
April 1	109,910
April 8	104,430	5,480
April 15	98,810	5,620
April 22	91,980	6,830
April 29	71,130	19,850
May 6	72,000	870
May 13	71,170	830
May 20	77,140	5,970
May 27	59,110	18,030
June 3	58,170	1,040
June 10	58,830	660
June 17	67,510	8,680
June 24	68,050	540

Total 96,710 1,440 1,110

Net Dec. 96,710 1,440 1,110

A year ago the production of coke was rapidly descending to the low point in the history of the region since it became a factor in bee-hive coke making. The tonnage in the entire ponding week of 1921 was but 28,180. That of last week was 29,770 tons or 106 per cent greater. Comparisons between the strike period of 1922 and the slump of 1921 during its progress to the crisis is shown in the following tabulation:

	1922		1921
Week Ending	Ovens	In Produce	Ovens	In Produce
April 1	11,061	112,260	4,712	7,171
April 8	12,884	111,120	1,175	32
April 15	2,138	98,810	4,443	47
April 22	3,298	69,980	4,568	61
April 29	1,813	71,130	1,011	48
May 6	15,110	72,000	1,011	60
May 13	15,106	71,170	1,782	43
May 20	5,908	77,140	2,814	130
May 27	2,111	59,110	3,862	160
June 3	5,841	58,170	2,911	60
June 10	5,815	58,830	3,114	32
June 17	6,769	67,510	2,061	157
June 24	1,126	68,050	879	243

Totals 49,685 71,110 4,658 44,013

The number of plants in operation is unchanged at 34 in the Connellsville and six in the Lower Connellsville district or 39 in all. The addition of 126 ovens at Frick plants swells the

WRIGHT-METZLER CO.

A Special Offering!

Children's Dresses

$1.95, $2.95, $3.95, $4.95

IF MOTHERS will be quick to take advantage of this opportunity there will be more well dressed kiddies in Connellsville tomorrow than in any other city for miles around.

It won't take you a second to recognize that the tiny frocks—at these tiny prices—the values of a sort that no thrifty soul will care to miss. We urge that you come early in the day!

At $1.95

The first group in which are placed children's dresses in organdie voile and dotted Swiss formerly marked $3.50 to $4.95. Pretty beyond the power of words to tell.

At $3.95

Another group comprised of frocks formerly $4.75 $4.95 and $5.75. You'll find some suitable for 'party occasions,' others ideal for general dress up wear. And all of them adorable!

At $2.95

A second group composed of dresses formerly $3.15. Materials are the sheer cool weaves so cultured for summer wear. Styles are as appealing as the little girls who will wear them!

At $4.95

A collection of frocks that little girls dream of—formerly marked $6.75 to $8.95. Dotted Swiss and the finer organdies and gingham with bright bits of embroidery and fetching washes.

Junior Dresses 20% Off

(Sizes 6 to 14 years)

A companion offering of dresses for older girls in gingham mostly. And featuring the season's latest and smartest styles. You will note from these examples that prices are attractive.

Were $2.95	Now $2.36	Were $10.75	Now $8.60
Were $5.75	Now $4.60	Were $12.75	Now $10.20
Were $7.95	Now $6.36	Were $14.75	Now $11.80

Second Floor

Smart Tub Frocks

in Imported Gingham and Stoeffel's
Organdie
(Reg. $7.75)
$5.75

Second Floor

Special at $18.75

($25 Value)

Summer
Coats
Silk Frocks
Peggy Paige
Imported
Ginghams

Second Floor

Just Every Color—

that's becoming to little girls is represented White, pink, peach, green and all the others. And the styles defy description—they really do! Organdies combined with voile. Organically with gingham. Sealed hem—colored embroidery—ruchings.

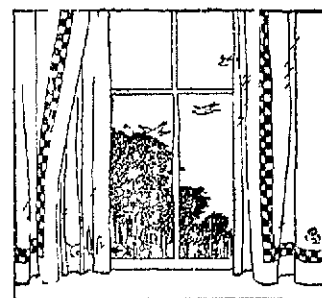

Appliques—

have much to do with making pretty dresses prettier yet. You find bits of gingham on an organdie background. Bits of organdie on voile. And many another touch bespeaking the genius of the designers of these dresses. These such a sprightly air about them!

Pantalettes—

are here a-plenty. There was never anything else invented quite so practical, it seems. They give a child the freedom of a romper combined with the smart appearance of a full fledged frock. And kiddies like them every bit as much as do their mothers.

Sale of Curtains At 25% Off!

Life in the Connellsville region calls for a lot of curtains—curtains that are pretty in the first place and that will wash well and often in the second. That's just the sort included in this Sale group.

Lace, marquisette, scrim, voile and even ruffled curtains are represented. All full size. All worthy of an honored place in any well managed home. Former prices, $1.25 to $1.00 are now—

94c to $6.75 a Pair

N. Pittsburg Street

Cretonne Special at 38c Yard

Colorful floral and lattice patterns that will make draperies as pretty as any you've seen in the magazines. 36 inches wide. Second Floor

A New Woolen For Sports Wear

"Basket Weave," they call it. And it gives promise of something really new in capes, suits and—skirts that will fringe prettily. 56 in wide $3.50 yd. Main Floor

Lace Assumes a New Importance In the Mode!

No surer proof that Fashion, like History, repeats itself than this tendency to go back to our grandmother's day for new ways to trim a frock—or to make one. These laces will be favored, both now and for Fall.

Val Lace—both imported French and Liberty laces are favored for trimming. They come about an inch in width at 10c to 30c yard.

Filet—with patterns evolved by old world fingers—is found in ecru and white. 1 to 5 inch widths. 10c to $1.50 yard.

Torchon—woven in simple patterns with a stout and rather loosely twisted thread—seeks domestic uses on pillow slips, etc. 10c to 35c yd.

Flouncings and All Over Laces—are found in gossamer weaves and beautiful colors, ready to make wonderful dresses. 36 in wide $3 to $4.50 Yard.

Main Floor

regional list to 641, or 7.1 per cent. But these figures, like when he struck the region, the 150,000 ton of 1919, even with the 100,000 ton of 1921, are not the final word. It is certain to be about 70 in the month of about 10 per cent of the total.

The demand for coke continues to be active. Lances, too, in the region every week are being held of whatever tonnage usually in small lots they can find. While coal and coke remains fairly uniform and prices remain steady, the feeling may be that many consumers are willing, until the dusted high rates have effect, to buy a little extra in the market. To the extent that this feeling, which is competitive, is expected, there will be temptations to "sell" that is, the voluntary limit placed on prices in other districts but not yet actually agreed to in the Connellsville region.

The effort of President Harding and Secretary Hoover and Davis to evolve some method whereby a bar is upon which to settle a strike may be established. It will be less likely to be the coke region than when mining. Here no question of wages is involved the workout being solely sympathetic in character. It is surmised, however, that a demand for effort will be made by organizers in the region to the recognition of the union. If such a demand is made it is certain to be resisted in the ground that the region has not been unionized. It is not here with no necessity of obligation on part of the operators to enter into negotiations with only part of their employees. Close touch with developments saving to go with a strike settlement will be maintained, principally for the purpose of observing the effect upon the demand for the region's coal and coke.

The estimated production of coke during the week ending Saturday, June 24, was 38,050 tons, divided between the two districts as follows: Connellsville, 29,450; an increase of 1,840 tons; Lower Connellsville, 8,600, a decrease of 610 tons or a net increase of 1,230 tons as compared with an increase of 810 tons during the preceding week.

By interests the production was 32,730 a gain of 950 tons; the merchant 15,280 a gain of 210 tons as compared with 14,130 and 1,650 tons respectively during the week ended June 17.

The oven increase was confined to

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER, WILBURN ASKS NEW TRIAL

By Associated Press.

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va., June 28.—Judge J. M. Woods announced in court today that he would grant his decision on August 7 on the motion of the Rev. J. H. Wilburn of Blair for a new trial. Wilburn was convicted of second degree murder in connection with the killing of Deputy Sheriff John Galt of Logan county during the march of miners late last summer.

Attending for a new trial the defense presented an affidavit signed by J. A. Mason and A. H. Club and charging that J. H. Kemp, one of the jurors in the case, said before the jury began that "the miners would not put their hands until every one of them was hanged." The state entered an affidavit signed by Kemp in which he declared he heard no such statement. The defense attacked certain evidence offered by the state during the trial, contending it should not have reached the jury.

State attorneys said they would rectify the defect within 10 days which of the remaining cases growing out of the march will be called for trial August 7 when court reconvenes. They indicated it would be that of John Wilburn, indicted for killing Galt, or C. F. Keeney, president of District 17, United Mine Workers, who is charged with treason.

Judge Woods refused the motion of the defense to release on bail seven men charged with murder, treason or conspiracy. Prosecuting Attorney John Chaffin of Logan told the court that when the cases were transferred from that county to Charles Town for a change of venue attorneys for both sides had agreed that bail would not be asked for the defendants.

Looking for Narganis!
If so, read our advertising columns and you will find them.

J. B. KURTZ
NOTARY PUBLIC
12 Wall Street
CONNELLSVILLE, PA.
Licenses of All States Secured.
Local Phone 1100-1101.